2. Terms

- 2.1. The Agreement commences when the customer successfully makes their first call.
- 2.2. Intertel will commence providing Service to the Customer under the Terms and Conditions from the Service Start Date.
- 2.3. If the Agreement is not a Fixed-Term Agreement, Intertel will provide the Service to the Customer in accordance with the Terms and Conditions until the Service is canceled in accordance with the Terms and Conditions.
- 2.4. If the Agreement is a Fixed-Term Agreement, Intertel will provide the Service to the Customer in accordance with the Agreement for the minimum term or until the Service is canceled in accordance with the Terms and Conditions, as the case may be. If neither party cancels the Service at the end of the minimum term Intertel will continue to supply the Service to the Customer on a month-to-month basis in accordance with the Terms and Conditions until the Service is canceled in accordance with the Terms and Conditions.
- 2.5. The service is considered active following completion of the first successfully completed phone call on the Customer's service. Intertel will provide the Service to the Customer in accordance with the Terms and Conditions for the minimum term or until the Service is canceled in accordance with the Terms and Conditions, as the case may be. If neither party cancels the Service at the end of the minimum term Intertel will continue to supply the Service to the Customer on a month-to-month basis in accordance with the Terms and Conditions until the Service is canceled in accordance with the Terms and Conditions.

3. Variation to Agreement

- 3.1. Intertel may vary any part of the Agreement:
- 3.2. with the Customer's consent; or
- 3.3. without the Customer's consent provided Intertel complies with the Telecommunications Legislation.
- 3.4. 3.2 If Intertel varies a Fixed-Term Agreement under clause 3.1:
- 3.5. Intertel must if the variation affects the Customer and it is not a change of a type listed in clause 3.3:
- 3.6. comply with the provisions of the Telecommunications Legislation;
- 3.7. giving the Customer twenty-one (21) days notice in writing of the change before the change occurs;
and
- 3.8. offer the Customer the right to cancel the Service (within forty-two (42) days from the date of the notice) without incurring fees or charges other than Accrued Charges.
- 3.9. Intertel must if the variation affects the Customer and is a change of the type listed in clause 3.3, comply with any additional notice provisions in clause 3.3; and
- 3.10. if the variation relates to the characteristics of the Service (including price) and the Customer does not agree that the change is likely to benefit the Customer or have only a neutral or minor detrimental effect on the Customer, the Customer may (if the change is not of a type described in clause 3.3), cancel the Service without incurring fees or charges other than Accrued Charges.
- 3.11.3.3 Intertel may vary a Fixed-Term Agreement even if the variation affects the Customer so long as it complies with the provisions of the Telecommunications Legislation, if the change is:
- 3.12. required by law;
- 3.13. in relation to the cost of international services or roaming;
- 3.14. in relation to a fee or charge to account for a tax imposed by law;
- 3.15. in relation to a fee or charge for a service ancillary to the supply of the Service provided that if the change affects the Customer, Intertel offers the Customer:
- 3.16. a right to cancel the Service without incurring fees or charges other than Accrued Charges;
- 3.17. to increase the price of a content or premium service (where the supplier who supplies the content service or premium service to Intertel to allow supply of the Service increases the price they charge Intertel for the content service or premium service) provided that if the change affects the Customer, Intertel:
- 3.18. gives the Customer reasonable notice of the increase in price if the Customer has used the content or premium service within the previous six (6) months; and
- 3.19. allows the Customer to elect to not use the content or premium service without attracting any additional charges;

- 3.20. as a result of another carrier or service provider varying the agreement Intertel has with it in relation to a carriage service and as a result Intertel needs to make changes to the Agreement, provided that if the change affects the Customer, Intertel gives the Customer:
- 3.21. notice in writing of the change; and
- 3.22. forty-two (42) days from the date of the notice in which the Customer may cancel the Service without incurring fees or charges other than Accrued Charges.
- 3.23.3.4 Unless expressly allowed in the Agreement, the Customer may not make any changes to the Agreement without Intertel's prior consent.
- 3.24.3.5 The Customer must ensure that any person the Customer allows to use the Service complies with the Agreement as if they were the Customer.
- 3.25.3.6 Intertel may give the Customer notice in writing of a changes to the Agreement by:
- 3.26. delivering notice of the change to the Customer by mail; or
- 3.27. sending the notice to the Customer's email address (if the Customer has agreed to communication by email); or
- 3.28. by including a message or insert in an invoice sent to the Customer; or
- 3.29. by posting the information on Intertel's website or in Intertel's retail outlets;

4. Application for the supply of the Service

- 4.1. Intertel may refuse the Customer's Application at its sole discretion.
- 4.2. The Customer agrees that provision and successful supply of the service on the Customer Premise Equipment implies acceptance of, and compliance with the Terms and Conditions.

5. Privacy

- 5.1. Intertel may collect, use and disclose personal information about the Customer to decide whether to start, stop or limit supply to the Customer of personal credit, the Service or the products and services of other Intertel Group Companies.
- 5.2. Intertel may collect, use and disclose personal information about the Customer for purposes related to the supply of the Service (or for purposes which would be reasonably expected) including invoicing and account management, business planning and product development, and to provide the Customer with information about promotions, as well as the products and services of Intertel Group Companies and other organisations.
- 5.3. Intertel may collect, use and disclose personal information about the Customer for the purposes in clauses 5.1 and 5.2 above to or from:
- 5.3.1. a credit reporting agency or credit provider;
- 5.3.2. another Intertel Group Company;
- 5.3.3. third parties who are not related to Intertel, including Intertel's agents, dealers, contractors, franchisees and debt recovery or mercantile agents;
- 5.3.4. suppliers who need access to the Customer's personal information to provide Intertel with services to allow supply of the Service; and

- 5.3.5. joint venture partners of Intertel Group Companies
- 5.3.6. Intertel may be permitted or required by applicable laws to collect, use or disclose personal information about the Customer, including to:
  - 5.3.7. the operator of the Integrated Public Number Database, which is an industry wide database of all listed and unlisted public numbers in Australia;
  - 5.3.8. emergency services organisations; and
  - 5.3.9. to law enforcement agencies and government agencies for purposes relating to the enforcement of criminal and other laws.
- 5.4. Where Intertel will be or will under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) be considered to be a credit provider to the Customer in relation to the Agreement, the following provisions will apply:
- 5.5. Intertel may give information about the Customer to a credit reporting agency for the following purposes:
  - 5.5.1. to obtain a consumer credit report about the Customer; and/or
  - 5.5.2. to allow the credit reporting agency to create or maintain a credit information file containing information about the Customer
- 5.6. Such information is limited to:
  - 5.6.1. identity particulars such as the Customer's name, sex, address (and the previous two addresses), date of birth, name of employer and driver's licence number;
  - 5.6.2. the Customer's application for credit or commercial credit and the fact that the Customer has applied for credit and the amount;
  - 5.6.3. the fact that Intertel is a current credit provider to the Customer;
  - 5.6.4. loan repayments which are overdue by more than sixty (60) days and for which debt collection action has started;
  - 5.6.5. advice that the Customer's loan repayments are no longer overdue in respect of any default that has been listed;
  - 5.6.6. information that, in the opinion of Intertel, the Customer has committed a serious credit infringement (that is, acted fraudulently or shown an intention not to comply with the Customer's credit obligations); and
  - 5.6.7. dishonoured cheques - cheques drawn by the Customer for $100 or more which have been dishonoured more than once.

5.7. The Customer agrees that:

5.7.1. Intertel may obtain information about the Customer from a business which provides information about the commercial credit worthiness of persons for the purpose of assessing the Customer's application for consumer credit;

5.7.2. Intertel may obtain a consumer credit report containing information about the Customer from a credit reporting agency for the purpose of assessing the Customer's application for commercial credit;

5.7.3. Intertel may exchange information about the Customer with those credit providers named in a consumer credit report issued by a credit reporting agency for the following purposes:

5.7.3.1. to assess an application by the Customer for credit;

5.7.3.2. to notify other credit providers of a default by the Customer;

5.7.3.3. to exchange information with other credit providers as to the status of the loan where the Customer is in default with other credit providers; and/or

5.7.3.4. to assess the Customer's credit worthiness; and

5.7.3.5. such the information exchanged may include anything about the Customer's credit worthiness, credit standing, credit history or credit capacity that credit providers are allowed to exchange under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

5.8. If the Customer wishes to only receive communications that are account-related or legally required, the Customer may request not to receive other communications by submitting a written request to Intertel.

5.9. If the Customer is an individual, the Customer is entitled to:

5.9.1. gain access to the Customer's personal information held by Intertel, unless Intertel is permitted or required by any applicable law to refuse such access; and

5.9.2. correct any personal information held by Intertel

5.10. If the Customer does not provide part or all of the personal information requested by Intertel then Intertel may refuse to supply, or limit the supply to the Customer of, personal credit or the Service.

5.11. By providing the Customer's personal information to Intertel and obtaining the Service, the Customer acknowledges and consent to the collection, use and disclosure of the Customer's personal information as set out in this clause 5 and in accordance with Intertel's privacy policy a copy of which will be made available by Intertel on request or may be viewed on Intertel's website www.Intertel.com.au/privacy.php

5.12. If the Customer has authorised Intertel to give or accept verbal instructions or other communication to or from the Customer in connection with the Service and the Customer has informed Intertel of a password to be used for Intertel's verification purposes when such verbal instructions or other communication is given or received, the Customer agrees:

5.12.1. to keep confidential such password;

5.12.2. that Intertel may assume that any person who quotes the password is authorised by the Customer to accept or give verbal instructions or other communication from or to Intertel in connection with the Service on behalf of the Customer;

5.12.3. that the Customer will not hold Intertel liable in any way if any information relating to the Customer's account or any of the Customer's personal information is inadvertently disclosed to any person not authorised by the Customer to receive such information who quotes such password to Intertel; and

5.12.4. that all calls made to or from Intertel's customer service centre(s) may be recorded for customer training, improvement programs and verification purposes.

5.13. The reference to "Customer" in this clause 5 includes a reference to and is applicable to Intertel's collection, use and disclosure of the personal information of the director or other officer of the Customer who completes or signs an Application on the Customer's behalf as he/she hereby acknowledges.

6. Using the Service

6.1. The Customer must reasonably co-operate with Intertel to allow Intertel, or a supplier, to establish and supply the Service to the Customer safely and efficiently

6.2. Intertel will provide the Service to the Customer with reasonable care and skill. In the event of unexpected faults Intertel will use reasonable endeavours to ensure the Service is restored as soon as possible

6.3. When using the Service, the Customer must comply with:

6.4. All laws;

6.5. All directions by a regulator;

6.6. All notices issued by authorisation of or under law;

6.7. The Acceptable Use Policy (unless it is stated in clause 17 to be not applicable to the Service); and

6.8. Reasonable directions by Intertel

6.9. The Customer must not use, or attempt to use, the Service:

6.10. to break any law or to infringe another person's rights;

6.11. to transmit, publish or communicate material which is defamatory, offensive, abusive, indecent, menacing, unwanted or otherwise unlawful or unauthorised

- 6.12. in any way that may expose Intertel to liability; or
- 6.13. in any way which or which may damage, interfere with or interrupt the Service, the Intertel network or a supplier's network used to supply the Service
- 6.14. Intertel may require the Customer to stop doing something which Intertel reasonably believes is in breach of clauses 6.3 or 6.4. The Customer must immediately comply with any such request failing which Intertel may take any steps reasonably necessary to ensure compliance with clauses 6.4 and 6.5
- 6.15. The Customer acknowledges that, where the Service is a carriage service, Intertel, or any supplier whose network is used to supply the Service, may be required to intercept communications over the Service and may also monitor the Customer's usage of the Service and communications sent over it.
- 6.16. Intertel may (but is not obliged to) contact the Customer if Intertel becomes aware of an unusually high use of the Service by the Customer (including to verify any costs or charges which the Customer may have incurred). In such event, Intertel may ask the Customer to make a pre-payment usage charge under clause 9.5. Intertel is also entitled to suspend the Service under clause 13.1(a) for an unusually high use of the Service.
- 6.17. The Customer must comply with any rules imposed by any third party whose content or services the Customer access using the Service or whose network the Customer's data traverses.

7. Equipment

- 7.1. The Customer must ensure that all equipment used in connection with the Service and the way the Customer uses that equipment complies with:
  - 7.2. all laws;
  - 7.3. all directions by a regulator;
  - 7.4. all notices issued by authorisation of or under law; and
  - 7.5. reasonable directions by Intertel,
- 7.6. Failing which Intertel may disconnect the equipment from the Service upon giving the Customer reasonable notice or with no notice in the event of an emergency.
- 7.7. In relation to equipment:
  - 7.7.1. any Intertel owned equipment remains Intertel's property;
  - 7.7.2. the Customer is responsible for any Intertel owned equipment from the time when the Customer receives it;
  - 7.7.3. the Customer must not mortgage or grant a charge, lien or encumbrance over any Intertel owned equipment; and

7.7.4. the Customer may purchase equipment from Intertel to use in connection with the Service. In such event, the Customer will own the equipment and be responsible for the equipment from when the Customer receives it.

7.8. The Customer must provide an adequate and suitable space, power supply and environment for all equipment used in connection with the Service and located on the Premises.

7.9. Unless otherwise agreed between the parties, the Customer must allow Intertel's personnel (and no other person) to service, modify, repair or replace any Intertel owned equipment.

7.10. The Customer is responsible for any lost, stolen or damaged Intertel owned equipment, except where caused by Intertel or Intertel's personnel.

7.11. The Customer will be responsible for any outstanding payments for equipment that the Customer has purchased from Intertel, even when that equipment is lost, stolen or damaged.

8. Network maintenance, fault reporting and rectifications

8.1. Intertel may conduct maintenance on the Intertel network and maintenance may be conducted on a supplier's network used to supply the Service. Intertel will endeavour to conduct scheduled maintenance on the Intertel network outside normal business hours.

8.2. Intertel will provide a 24 hour fault reporting service for the Customer to report faults. Before the Customer reports a fault to Intertel, the Customer must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the fault is not caused by any equipment that is not Intertel owned equipment.

8.3. The Customer must provide all reasonable assistance to enable Intertel or Intertel personnel, or where necessary a supplier or supplier's personnel, to investigate and where applicable repair a fault including providing them with adequate and timely access to the Premises. For residential and business customers this is up to the Network Boundary Point (NBP) or Main Distribution Frame (MDF) whichever is relevant of the premises

8.4. Intertel will repair faults within the Intertel network used to supply the Service. Unless the Service Description expressly provides otherwise, Intertel is not responsible for repairing any fault in the Service where the fault arises in or is caused by:

8.4.1. a supplier's network;

8.4.2. equipment that is not Intertel owned equipment; or

8.4.3. facilities outside the Intertel network.

Where:

8.4.4. A fault arises in or is caused by a supplier's network;

8.4.5. Intertel becomes aware of the fault; and

8.4.6. Intertel is not responsible for the repair of that fault.

Intertel will notify the supplier of the fault and request that the fault be corrected promptly, but Intertel will not bear any further liability or responsibility.

8.5. Where a fault arises in or is caused by equipment that is not Intertel owned equipment, Intertel is not responsible for the repair of that fault. Nevertheless:

8.5.1. if the Customer asks Intertel to investigate a fault or asks Intertel to request a supplier to investigate a fault, Intertel will give the Customer an estimate of the probable cost of such investigation and obtain the Customer's agreement to bear those costs before undertaking or arranging an investigation and using reasonable endeavours to identify and inform the Customer of the probable cause of the fault; and

8.5.2. if the Customer requests Intertel to repair the fault and Intertel agrees, Intertel will give the Customer an estimate of the probable cost of repairing the fault and obtain the Customer's agreement to bear those costs before carrying out the repair.

8.5.3. If Intertel investigates a fault and determines that the fault is attributable to a breach of the Agreement by the Customer, a negligent or fraudulent act or omission by the Customer or any of the Customer's personnel or a failure of any of the Customer's equipment and/or premises, the Customer must pay the costs incurred by Intertel in investigating.

9. Fees and charges

9.1. The Customer must pay:

9.1.1. the fees and charges for the Service, which are set out in the Agreement or Terms and Conditions or in any applicable Special Offer; and

9.1.2. any additional fees and charges noted in the Agreement (including in the Application) or notified by Intertel in accordance with the Agreement from time to time.

9.2. The Customer must pay all fees and charges which are incurred for the Service even if the Customer did not authorise its use.

9.3. The Customer must pay the fees and charges for the Service even if the Service is unavailable or the Customer is unable to access the Service. However, the Customer may be entitled to a refund or a rebate as stated in the Agreement or under the law.

9.4. In addition to the fees and charges the Customer incurs in the normal use of the Service (including an access fee, where applicable), Intertel may charge the Customer administration fees and other similar charges including suspension fees, cancellation fees, late payment fees, payment dishonour fees or reconnection or reactivation fees as set out in the Agreement.

9.5. Intertel may also ask the Customer to make a pre-payment usage charge or request that the Customer make an interim good-faith payment (including, for example, if there has been an unusually high use of the Service or if the Customer wishes to activate roaming).

9.6. Intertel will calculate fees based on billing information generated or received by Intertel which will be prima facie evidence of the Customer's use of the Service and the fees and charges incurred.

- 9.7. If the Customer uses the services of a third party, the Customer will be billed at the third party's applicable rates and charges. Where Intertel invoices the Customer for the Customer's use of the services of a third party, it will be in Intertel's capacity as that third party's billing agent only.
- 9.8. Intertel may offer the Customer a Special Offer from time to time. In such event, Intertel will notify the Customer of the Special Offer and the terms of the Special Offer either through general advertising or by specifically advising the Customer. A Special Offer may be an offer to vary the pricing plan or the terms of supply (including the minimum term) for the Service and it may be subject to certain conditions. If the Customer validly accepts a Special Offer, the terms of the Special Offer will prevail only to the extent they are inconsistent with the terms of the Agreement. Upon the expiry or termination of the Special Offer, the full terms and conditions of the Agreement will apply.
- 9.9. Some fees and charges for the Service are subject to variation such as charges relating to:
- 9.9.1. international services or roaming; and
  - 9.9.2. content or premium services
- 9.10. And the Customer must inform Intertel before using the Service from outside Australia.

10. Payments

- 10.1. Intertel will invoice the Customer on a regular basis (either in advance or in arrears), unless otherwise set out in the Service Description. Such invoice may be sent to the Customer by post unless the Customer has requested and Intertel has agreed to send a copy of the invoice to the Customer electronically.
- 10.2. Intertel will try to include on the Customer's invoice all charges for the relevant billing period. However, where this is not possible Intertel may include unbilled charges in a later invoice(s).
- 10.3. Intertel may invoice the Customer using a billing agent .
- 10.4. The Customer may pay by one of the payment methods as set out in the payment notification, on the back of the invoice or on Intertel's websites. For residential grade services, payment can only be made by direct deposit or cheque.
- 10.5. If the Customer makes a request to Intertel to pay by direct debit from its nominated bank or credit card account and Intertel agrees, the Customer must comply with all terms and conditions imposed by Intertel for the direct debit arrangement. In such event, the Customer acknowledges that the direct debit arrangement may take up to thirty (30) days from the date of the Customer's request to put in place.
- 10.6. If the Customer's payment is not honoured for any reason, Intertel may charge the Customer a fee.
- 10.7. Subject to clause 11.4, the Customer must pay the entire amount invoiced by the due date specified in the payment notification, invoice or as otherwise notified by Intertel.
- 10.8. If the Customer does not pay the invoice by the date the payment is due, Intertel may:
- 10.8.1. Charge the Customer a late fee which is payable until all outstanding amounts are paid;
  - 10.8.2. Require the Customer to provide reasonable security to Intertel to secure the payment of future amounts due under the Agreement;
  - 10.8.3. Suspend or cancel the Service, in accordance with clauses 12 or 13 as relevant or the relevant Service Description. If Intertel suspends or cancels the Service, Intertel may charge

- the Customer a suspension fee, cancellation fee and/or reconnection or reactivation fee as set out in the Agreement. Reconnection or reactivation of the Service is subject to payment of the reconnection or reactivation fee;
- 10.8.4. Engage a mercantile agent to recover the money the Customer owes Intertel and charge the Customer a recovery fee;
- 10.8.5. Institute legal proceedings against the Customer to recover the money the Customer owes Intertel and recover from the Customer its legal costs; and/or
- 10.8.6. On-sell any unpaid amounts to a third party.
- 10.9. If the Customer has overpaid as a result of a invoicing error, the Customer's account will be credited with the amount overpaid or Intertel will use reasonable endeavours to notify the Customer and refund the over payment.
- 10.10. Unless otherwise indicated, the fees and charges set out in the Agreement include any amount on account of tax. Where the fees and charges do not include an amount on account of tax and tax is payable by Intertel in relation to, or on any supply under or in connection with the Agreement, Intertel will increase the tax exclusive fees and charges by an additional amount on account of the tax. The Customer must pay the additional amount at the same time the Customer pays the fees and charges.
- 10.11. If the Customer requires a copy of any invoice sent by Intertel in relation to the Service after cancellation of the Service or termination of the Agreement and a copy of such invoice remains retrievable from Intertel's records, the Customer must pay Intertel's reasonable administration fee for such retrieval.

11. Complaints and disputes

- 11.1. If the Customer has any complaints in connection with the Service the Customer may complain in writing or by calling Intertel.
- 11.2. Intertel will handle all complaints in accordance with its complaints procedure which is available from Intertel on request or on Intertel's website: <http://www.Intertel.com.au>.
- 11.3. Intertel will use its best endeavours to resolve all complaints, however if Intertel is not able to resolve a complaint to the Customer's satisfaction, the Customer may take other action, such as informing the Telecommunications Industry Ombudsman, the Department of Fair Trading or Department of Consumer Affairs in the relevant state or territory.
- 11.4. Where a Customer's complaint is about a fee or charge for the use of the Service, Intertel may suspend payment obligations, for that fee or charge only, until the complaint has been investigated and resolved. All other fees and charges that are not in dispute remain due and payable.
- 11.5. Where a Customer's complaint is about a significant and sustained loss of access to, or use of, the Service which is not reasonably attributable to the Customer or non Intertel owned equipment, the Customer may be entitled on request to a refund or a rebate of any access fees for the period in which the Customer's access or use was interrupted (including when an Intervening Event occurs) as stated in the Terms and Conditions or under the law.

12. Cancelling the Service

- 12.1. The Customer may cancel the Service at any time by:

- 12.1.1. giving Intertel thirty (30) days notice (including if the Customer does not wish to continue to use the Service after the end of the minimum term of a Fixed-Term Agreement); or
- 12.1.2. giving Intertel notice, if Intertel breaches a material term of the Agreement and Intertel either:
  - 12.1.3. cannot remedy that breach; or
  - 12.1.4. fails to remedy that breach within thirty (30) days after the Customer gives Intertel notice requiring Intertel to do so.
- 12.2. If a Consumer Customer acquires the Service from Intertel through a sales method regulated by door-to-door sales legislation in the Customer's state or territory, the Consumer Customer may cancel the Service before the end of the cooling-off period set out in the relevant legislation.
- 12.3. If the Agreement is a Fixed-Term Agreement, a Customer may also cancel the Service pursuant to clause 3.
- 12.4. If the Agreement is a non Fixed-Term Agreement, Intertel may cancel the Service at any time by giving the Customer at least thirty (30) days notice.
- 12.5. Intertel may cancel the Service at any time, without liability, if:
  - 12.5.1. there is an emergency;
  - 12.5.2. Intertel reasonably suspects fraud or other illegal activity by the Customer or any other person in connection with the Service;
  - 12.5.3. any amount owing to Intertel in respect of the Service is not paid by its due date and the Customer fails to pay that amount in full within ten (10) business days after Intertel gives the Customer a notice requiring payment of that amount, unless otherwise set out in the Agreement;
  - 12.5.4. Intertel reasonably consider the Customer a credit risk because the Customer has not paid amounts owing to Intertel or any Intertel Group Company in respect of any service by its due date and the Customer fails to pay that amount in full within the period stated in any notice given to the Customer requiring payment of that amount;
  - 12.5.5. the Customer breaches a material term of the Agreement (other than a breach which separately gives rise to rights under this clause) and the Customer either cannot remedy that breach or fails to remedy that breach within thirty (30) days after Intertel gives the Customer notice requiring the Customer to do so;
  - 12.5.6. Intertel is required to do so to comply with an order, instruction, request or notice of a regulator, an emergency services organisation, any other competent authority or by authorisation of or under law;

- 12.5.7. the Customer suffers an insolvency event and Intertel reasonably believes Intertel is unlikely to receive payment for amounts due;
  - 12.5.8. the Customer dies or if the Customer is a partnership and the partnership is dissolved or an application is made to dissolve the partnership, and Intertel reasonably believes Intertel is unlikely to receive payment for amounts due;
  - 12.5.9. the Service is suspended for more than fourteen (14) days, unless otherwise set out in the Agreement;
  - 12.5.10. any Intervening Event prevents the supply of the Service in accordance with the Agreement for more than fourteen (14) days; or
  - 12.5.11. Intertel is otherwise entitled to do so under the Agreement or Acceptable Use Policy.
- 12.6. Intertel may cancel the Service under clause 12.5 as soon as Intertel gives the Customer notice, unless otherwise set out in the Agreement. However, Intertel may cancel the Service immediately if there is an emergency.
  - 12.7. If the Customer elects to have an equivalent service to the Service supplied by another carrier, carriage service provider or service provider (including, by churning) and that carrier, carriage service provider or service provider informs Intertel that the Customer has elected to have the Service supplied by them or have churned to them, the Service will be deemed to have been canceled by the Customer immediately. This will be without prejudice to Intertel's rights under the Agreement with respect to the Service.
  - 12.8. If the Service is canceled:
    - 12.8.1. the Customer is liable for any charges incurred (including the cancellation fee and outstanding Equipment Charges, if any as set out in the Agreement) up to, and including, the Cancellation Date;
    - 12.8.2. the Customer authorises Intertel to apply any over payment on the Customer's account and/or money that the Customer has paid in advance for the Service which is being canceled to pay for any undisputed outstanding charges (including the cancellation fee and outstanding Equipment Charges, if any as set out in the Agreement);
    - 12.8.3. subject to clause 12.8(b) and unless otherwise set out in the Service Description, Intertel will refund any over payment on the Customer's account and any money that the Customer has paid in advance for the Service which is being canceled on a pro-rata basis to the Customer; and

- 12.8.4. if the Customer is required under the Service Description to pay for the Service by direct debit payment (either from the Customer's nominated bank or credit card account), the Customer authorises Intertel to debit any undisputed outstanding charges (including any cancellation fee and outstanding Equipment Charges, if any as set out in the Agreement) from the Customer's nominated bank or credit card account;
- 12.9. provided no cancellation fee shall be payable by the Customer:
- 12.9.1.1. if the Agreement is not a Fixed-Term Agreement; or
  - 12.9.1.2. if the Agreement is a Fixed-Term Agreement that is canceled after the expiry of the minimum term.
- 12.10. If the Service is canceled as a result of circumstances reasonably attributable to the Customer (including if the Customer changes the location of the Premises):
- 12.11. before the Service Start Date, the Customer must pay Intertel all infrastructure and installation costs incurred by Intertel in connection with preparations for supplying the Service to the Customer;
- 12.12. during the minimum term, the Customer must pay Intertel a cancellation fee or such higher amount as may be provided in clause 17; and
- 12.13. the Customer must pay Intertel all costs incurred to rectify the Customer's breach of the Agreement.
- 12.14. If the Customer wishes to reinstate the Service at any time after cancellation the Customer may make a request to Intertel provided that if the Service is canceled as a result of circumstances attributable to the Customer and Intertel reinstates the Service, then the Customer may have to pay Intertel a reconnection or reactivation fee or such higher amount as may be provided in clause 17.
- 12.15. If the Customer is able to use the Service after the Cancellation Date, the Customer is liable for any charges incurred by the Customer for that use, in addition to any other charges under this clause 12.

13. Suspending the Service

- 13.1. Intertel may suspend the Service at any time, without liability:
- 13.1.1. in any of the circumstances described in clause 12.5(a) to (h) and (k);
  - 13.1.2. if it is necessary to allow Intertel or a supplier to repair, maintain or service any part of the Intertel network or a supplier's network used to supply the Service;
  - 13.1.3. if Intertel reasonably believes there has been an unusually high use of the Service; or
  - 13.1.4. problems are experienced interconnecting the Intertel network with any supplier's network used to supply the Service.

- 13.2. Intertel may suspend the Service under clause 13.1 as soon as Intertel gives the Customer notice, unless otherwise set out in the Agreement. However, Intertel may suspend the Service immediately if there is an emergency.
- 13.3. If Intertel suspends the Service, Intertel may later cancel the Service for the same or a different reason.
- 13.4. If the Service is suspended, the Customer will have to pay access fees for the Service while it is suspended.
- 13.5. If the Service is suspended and the suspension was not as a result of circumstances attributable to the Customer or non Intertel owned equipment, the Customer may be entitled on request to a refund or a rebate of any access fees for the period of suspension as stated in the Agreement or under the law.
- 13.6. If the Service is suspended as a result of circumstances attributable to the Customer, the Customer may have to pay Intertel a suspension fee.
- 13.7. If the Customer wishes to reactivate the Service at any time after suspension the Customer may make a request to Intertel provided that if the Service is suspended as a result of circumstances attributable to the Customer and Intertel reactivates the Service, the Customer may have to pay Intertel a reconnection or reactivation fee or such higher amount as may be set out in clause 17.

14. Liability

- 14.1. The Customer is liable to Intertel for any breach of the Agreement that causes foreseeable loss to Intertel.
- 14.2. Except as in the Agreement otherwise expressly provided (including under clause 14.3), the Customer is not liable to Intertel for any consequential losses Intertel suffers or for any costs, expenses, loss or charges that Intertel incurs which are not a direct result of something the Customer has done.
- 14.3. Intertel is not in any way liable to any Business End User (whether in contract or tort (including negligence), under any legislation or otherwise). A Business Customer must indemnify and keep Intertel fully indemnified against any loss or damage incurred in connection with any claim against Intertel by a Business End User in relation to:
  - 14.3.1. the use (or attempted use) of the Service; or
  - 14.3.2. the equipment used in connection with the Service.
  - 14.3.3. Intertel has responsibilities and obligations under the law, including under:
    - 14.3.4. the Telecommunications Legislation;
    - 14.3.5. the Trade Practices Act; and
    - 14.3.6. applicable laws, regulations and codes.
- 14.4. Nothing in the Agreement removes or limits any rights that the Customer has under existing laws or regulations.
- 14.5. Intertel may be liable to the Customer for:

- 14.5.1. any damage to the Customer's property which has been caused by the fault, negligence or fraud by Intertel or Intertel's personnel during installation, repair or maintenance;
- 14.5.2. interruptions in the Customer's use of the Service as a result of a fault or negligence of Intertel or Intertel's personnel, to the extent of a refund or rebate for the period of the interruption and compensation for any reasonable loss incurred as stated in the Agreement and where required by law
- 14.6. If a customer applies for a residential grade service, which is supplied on the basis is is solely for personal, domestic or household use and they use it for any business purposes, Intertel is not liable for any business related losses
- 14.7. death or personal injury caused by Intertel or Intertel's personnel; or
- 14.8. breach of terms that are implied by the Trade Practices Act and other laws into contracts for the supply of goods and services. If any condition or warranty is implied into the Agreement under the Trade Practice Act or other laws then Intertel's liability (if any) for breach of that condition or warranty in connection with any goods or services Intertel supplies under the Agreement is (in relation to a Business Customer) limited to re-supply, repairing or replacing the goods or services, where those goods or services are not of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use and where it is reasonable and fair to do so.
- 14.9. Other than as provided in clauses 14.4 and 14.5, Intertel is not liable to the Customer under this Agreement.
- 14.10. If the Customer has contributed to any loss or damage the Customer is claiming against Intertel, Intertel's liability is reduced to the extent of the Customer's contribution.
- 14.11. Intertel is not liable to the Customer for any consequential losses the Customer suffers or for any costs, expenses, loss or charges that the Customer incurs which is not a direct result of something Intertel has done.
- 14.12. In relation to a Business Customer, to the extent permitted by law, Intertel's total liability for loss is limited in aggregate for any claim or series of connected claims to $5 million to the extent that the exclusions or limitations in clauses 14.4 to 14.7 do not apply.

15. Assignment and transfer

15.1. Intertel may:

- 15.1.1. assign some or all of its rights under the Agreement to any person;
- 15.1.2. transfer some or all of its obligations under the Agreement to any Intertel Group Company that is able to perform those obligations; and/or 15.1.3. perform any of its obligations under the Agreement by arranging for them to be performed by another person, including a supplier or another Intertel Group Company provided Intertel remains responsible for the performance of the obligations, and the Customer irrevocably authorises Intertel to execute on their behalf all such documents that may be required to be executed by the Customer to effect such assignment or transfer.

16. General

- 16.1. The Agreement is governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Australia and the laws of the state or territory in which the Customer normally reside and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Commonwealth and its states and territories.
- 16.2. Intertel owns all material (including intellectual property rights) developed by Intertel or Intertel's personnel, at Intertel's direction.
- 16.3. Intertel may permit the Customer to use this material, or other material licensed by Intertel, as part of the Service. This permission is subject to any conditions which Intertel may impose from time to time and will cease when the Service is canceled.
- 16.4. The Customer must not infringe any person's intellectual property rights (such as by using, copying or distributing data or software without the permission of the owner) in using the Service. If the Customer breaches this clause, Intertel may suspend or cancel the Service without notice.
- 16.5. If the Customer has been provided with a service equivalent to the Service by another carrier, carriage service provider or service provider and has elected to have that service replaced by the Service under the Agreement (including, by churning), the Customer authorises Intertel to:
  - 16.6. Inform that carrier, carriage service provider or service provider that the Customer has elected to have the Service supplied by Intertel or have churned to Intertel; and
  - 16.7. To take such action (including give such notices and sign such documents) on behalf of the Customer as may be necessary or appropriate to effect the transfer or churning transaction.
- 16.8. If an Intervening Event occurs which affects a party (the said party) from performing any of the said party's obligations under the Agreement (other than an obligation to pay money), then the said party will not be liable for failing to perform that obligation provided:
  - 16.8.1. the said party must notify the other party of the Intervening Event and use its best efforts to resume performance in accordance with the Agreement as soon as reasonably possible; and
  - 16.8.2. the said party's obligations continue during the Intervening Event unless it is not able to perform its obligations due to the other party being unable to perform its obligations due to the Intervening Event.

- 16.9. The Customer represents that the Customer is not a carrier or carriage service provider. If the Customer are or become a carrier or carriage service provider, Intertel may immediately cancel the Service by giving the Customer notice.
- 16.10. If the Customer breaches the Agreement and Intertel does not exercise a right that Intertel has because of the Customer's breach, Intertel does not waive:
- 16.11. That right unless Intertel gives the Customer notice in writing confirming that Intertel have waived that right; or
- 16.12. Intertel's right to insist that the Customer perform any obligation the Customer has under the Agreement.
- 16.13. Intertel may pay a commission to any of Intertel's personnel in connection with the Agreement.
- 16.14. Each party will do, sign, execute and deliver and will procure that each of its employees and agents does, signs, executes and delivers, all agreements, documents, instruments and acts reasonably required of it by notice from the other party to effectively carry out and give full effect to the Agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties under it.
- 16.15. Information and advice about the Customer's rights can be obtained by contacting the Australian Communications and Media Authority, the Telecommunications Industry Ombudsman, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission or the relevant Department of Fair Trading or Department of Consumer Affairs in the Customer's state or territory.
- 16.16. Any notice or demand given pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be delivered, posted, e-mailed or transmitted by facsimile:
- 16.17. to the Customer at the Customer's e-mail address, address and/or facsimile number indicated on the Application or the Customer's latest e-mail address, address and facsimile number notified to Intertel in writing; and
- 16.18. to Intertel at Intertel's latest address and facsimile number indicated on Intertel's website at <http://www.Intertel.com.au>.
- 16.19. Any such notice shall be deemed to be received:
- 16.19.1. in the case of delivery, at the time of delivery;
- 16.19.2. if served by post, at the expiration of forty-eight (48) hours from time of posting (if sent to a local address) or ten (10) days from the time of posting (if sent to an overseas address), notwithstanding that it may subsequently be returned through the post office unclaimed; or
- 16.19.3. in the case of a facsimile transmission, on production of a transmission control report indicating transmission without error.
- 16.19.4. in the case of an e-mail, on production of a e-mail header indicating delivery without error

16.19.5. The Agreement sets out the entire agreement and understanding between the parties in relation to the Service and no party has entered into the Agreement in reliance upon any representation, warranty or undertaking of any party which is not set out or referred to in the Agreement.

16.19.6. In the event of any inconsistency between a provision in these terms and conditions and another part of the Agreement, then unless otherwise stated, these terms and conditions prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

17. Special terms and conditions applicable to the Service

17.1. If at the time of Application the Customer does not have an existing agreement with Intertel for the provision of asymmetric digital subscriber line (ADSL) or Wireless broadband service, then the Customer must provide Intertel with a $300.00 security bond to secure the Customer's obligations under the Agreement prior to the Service Start Date. Such security bond:

17.1.1. may be paid to Intertel by direct debit from the Customer's nominated bank or credit card account if the Customer has a direct debit arrangement in place with Intertel; and

17.1.2. may be used by Intertel from time to time and at any time to pay any amounts due from the Customer under the Agreement in which event the Customer must immediately pay Intertel such amount as may be necessary to maintain the amount of security bond at $300.00; and

17.1.3. will be released by Intertel to the Customer within five (5) business days after the earlier of:

17.1.3.1. the end of six (6) months from the Service Start Date provided the Customer has been making all payments due to Intertel under the Agreement on time; or

17.1.3.2. the date the Agreement is cancelled (provided all amounts due from the Customer Intertel under the Agreement have been fully paid).

17.2. Provision of the Service and the Customer's ability to use the Service is conditional upon the Customer having an internet connection of at least 512Kbps/128Kbps and either:

17.2.1. a voice over internet protocol (VOIP) telephone handset connected to an Internet connection as described in 17.2; or 17.2.2. a soft phone capability on the Customer's computer.

17.3. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that:

17.3.1. The telephone lines (for DSL) used for the Customer's internet connection that will carry VOIP traffic to and from Intertel switches are not provided by Intertel under the Agreement and under the Agreement Intertel does not provide a maintenance service for the Customer's line; and Intertel does not have any control over the quality or availability of those lines;

- 17.3.2. the Service is not and cannot be used in place of a public switched telephone network line and cannot be used for emergency (000) calls;
  - 17.3.3. any person who the Customer allows to make telephone calls using the Service is deemed to be authorised by the Customer to make those calls and the Customer will be responsible for all charges incurred by such person;
  - 17.3.4. as Intertel may calculate fees based on billing information generated by third parties, any delay by such third parties in providing the relevant billing information which causes a delay by Intertel in issuing an invoice for the Service does not in any way affect Intertel's right to payment of such invoice;
  - 17.3.5. if the Customer does not pay an invoice by the date payment is due, Intertel may charge the Customer late payment interest on the amount payable under the invoice calculated at the rate of three percent (3%) per annum above the base lending rate of Intertel's bank until the amount is paid in full; and
- 17.4. Intertel may from time to time and at any time (including, for example, if there has been an unusually high use of the Service) in addition to Intertel's right to request for a pre-payment usage charge under clause 9.5:
- 17.4.1. impose a credit limit on the Customer's account; and/or
  - 17.4.2. require the Customer to provide within a reasonable time and maintain with Intertel a cash security bond of a reasonable amount to secure the Customer's obligations under the Agreement which security bond:
    - 17.4.2.1. may be used by Intertel from time to time and at any time to pay any amounts due from the Customer under the Agreement in which event the Customer must immediately pay Intertel such amount as may be necessary to maintain the amount of security bond at the original amount; and
    - 17.4.2.2. will be released by Intertel to the Customer within five (5) business days after the date the Agreement is cancelled (provided all amounts due from the Customer Intertel under the Agreement have been fully paid).
- 17.5. A failure to comply with this provision is a material breach of the Agreement and Intertel shall be entitled to:

17.5.1. cancel the Service under clause 12.5(e) and charge the Customer a cancellation fee under clause 12.9(b); or 17.5.2. suspend the Service under clause 13.1(a).

17.6. The Acceptable Use Policy does not apply to the Service.

17.7. Payment for VoIP services is due on the first business day of each calendar month.

17.7.1. This is for the period of the first to last of the previous calendar month.

17.8. If any Intertel customer assigned a VoIP number (DID) does not connect and configure the DID within 30 days of allocation, Intertel has the right to re-issue or cancel it.
